CONSENT & AUTHORIZATION FOR BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION
For Parks and Recreation Volunteers

I hereby authorize the City of Enterprise, and/or its contracted agents to procure background records and reports on me and to make investigation into my background, references, character, past/present employment, education, motor vehicle records, drug screening records, civil criminal and police records, including those maintained by both public and private organizations, and all public records.

I understand that this background investigation is being done because I desire to act as a volunteer related to the Enterprise Parks and Recreation department programs/activities. I understand that regardless of what the background investigation reveals, the City of Enterprise/Parks and Recreation has the right to deny me the opportunity to participate as a volunteer for any reason, in its absolute discretion, whether now or in the future. I understand if an adverse decision is made, due to the contents of this investigative report, I will receive a free copy of the report and a summary of my rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

I understand that this consent and authorization is effective as of the date signed below but I further understand this same consent and authorization may be used in the future if it becomes necessary for the City of Enterprise, and/or its contracted agents to so use the same to procure any further material/information. A duplicate copy of this consent and authorization shall be just as effective as the original.

I understand that this execution of this form and the related background investigation are pre-requisites to my participation as a volunteer and I do hereby hold the City of Enterprise and/or its contracted agents harmless in using this consent and authorization and agree not to contend such is an invasion of privacy or any other legal wrong.
